“ Audrie has been a patron of the Birmingham Public Library for a long time, and participated actively in many of our programs. She is greatly missed by both staff and patrons at Springville Road Branch. Despite her personal health problems, Audrie was always smiling and joking. Her love for others shone in everything she did. She was generous with her time and talents and was one of those rare individuals that everyone liked to be around. She always encouraged other people and I miss her beautiful smile and sweet spirit. -- Kelly Laney
