“ Beth, you were a Godsend to Mark and his children and grandchildren. You fostered relationships that were strained and broken. You restored some of us to each other while we were kicking and screaming the whole time.

Sometimes you were sweet, and sometimes you were like a bull in a china shop.

You could cook like no other.

You will be missed, but never forgotten.

*Respectfully,
Your brother outlaw,
Scott Lide*

“ Beth, you were one of the most unusual, funny, intelligent women I have ever known. I know you're now happily reunited with your parents, so your soul must be at peace. I send condolences to Mark, to Holly and even Keith. Losing a spouse or sibling feels like a very unique kind of pain.

“ Mark, Keith, Holly, and family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Beth was brilliant, hilarious, loving, and beautiful. I'll always cherish our high school memories, and I so enjoyed catching up with her through Facebook and on the phone a few years back. She seemed very happy with life. May peace be with you all.

“ We are so sorry for your loss, Mark, Keith, Holly, and family. Beth was so much fun to be around and a sweet person, like her mom. You LeMays were like family to us growing up together at church and in the neighborhood. Thankful we got to see Beth a few years ago - she seemed so happy with her life and had us all laughing, as she always did. We'll see you again, Beth and will never forget you.
Much love, Jana Hall McCullough
