“ I want you all to know Brandon will be missed very much he was a great young man. Sarah if you ever need anything you let me know. I will always be here for all the family and you all will be in my prayers. I ask that God will pour out his blessings on each and everyone of Brandon's family. Always remember that Brandon is now with our Heavenly Father and he is that Special Angel watching over us and we will see him in Heaven again when God calls us home. With Love from Greg Pate & Family
