“ To the Perkins, Clements, and Sibert Family..... Yall don't know me but Brenda and I were best friends in jr high school at Union Grove... We spent the night with each all the time. We ate rice with cream on it for breakfast many times and your mom's mother, Mrs Perkins could make the best fried rabbit and gravy ever. We eventually lost touch with each especially after I moved to North Carolina and my husband was from there. I always check the obits on ARAB TODAY on my couputer and was so shocked and saddened to see Brenda's name. Although we had lost touch with each other and had'nt seen each other in years I will deeply miss her in my heart. Yall all have my deepest condolences and are in my thoughts and prayers daily..

“My mother was an angel on earth and her smile would brighten anyone's day. She loved Robert Sibert and the entire Sibert family very much. Words cannot express how thankful I am for Robert and his family for their love and support of my mom. Also, mother was blessed with having wonderful siblings and extended family that she loved and adored and meant the world to her and me. Your caring and love helped sustain all of us during this very difficult time.

I would like to thank the staff of Marshall Manor Nursing Home for their care of mom and the family during the last 6 months. They did an exemplary job and went above and beyond to support all of us.

I loved my mother very much and I am thankful she had such a living and caring family.

"Momma, I love you forever."

To the Clements and Sibert Family, Yall don't know me but I went to school with Brenda, your wife and mom.. In Jr high school at Union Grove, Brenda and I were best friends, we spent the night with each other all the time. As we grew up we eventually lost touch with each other especially since I move away to North Carolina and married my husband who is from here. I always check ARAB TODAY on my computer to see if I know any one listed in the obits. I was so shocked and deeply saddened to see my once best friends name listed. Although I had'nt seen Brenda in years I will still miss her in my heart, she was a wonderful friend way back when and I'm sure she was a wonderful wife and mother and grandmother. Yall all have my deepest condolences and are in my thoughts and prayers daily... SUE EUBANKS FARR GASTONIA, NORTH CAROLINA.
