“ *We lived next door to the Burgetts for 17 years. We will never for how good they were to us; especially on January 26, 1978. We were stranded at a gas station during the terrible blizzard of 1978 after my car quit running. We had no way to get home and called Clarence. Without hesitation, he drove the 3 miles through the storm to get us. It took him almost 45 minutes! Jean was 5 months pregnant at the time. He got us home safe and sound. The next day, he helped us "dig out" and then took us to the only grocery store in town that was open so that we could buy some food after he loaned us some money to buy it! What great people he and earlene were. We'll never forget them. We're so happy that they're together again. God bless the family in your loss. We are better for having known them.
