I have pondered these past few days of what to share here. I remember vividly the day Curtis Dale Chambers entered our family by marriage to Rita. Later on they were blessed with a precious baby girl, Shannon. A few years later our family was blessed again with Cody. Now, looking at how many more blessings we have, Mikaylah, Dylan, Elora, Mason and now baby Kylie Ann. Thank you sweet cousin for bringing so much love into our family.

Shirley, I am so thankful to have got to spend a few minutes with you and Glenda. I also want to Thank You for welcoming me into Curt and your home to visit with him. It meant the world to me. Your kindness was much appreciated. Watching how you lovingly cared for Curt warmed my heart. Thank you.

I am so thankful God has blessed me with my family and extended family. Curt will always hold a special place in my heart.

It is my hope that Curt's entire family knows that mourning is necessary, peace is coming. God's blessings and grace over you all as you walk through this valley. Please know you are not alone on this journey.

Love, Nano

“ Comfort blessings to the family. He will be missed. Though We didn't know him very long he was a warm friendly man that didn't treat you like a stranger. Live to all.

“ I had the privilege of knowing Curt since I was a young girl. I always thought a lot of him and was so happy when he became my brother in law. Shirley and Curt were so happy together and loved each other so much. It was a privilege to see the two of them together. He was a good man and one I loved and proud to call family. Prayers for my sister as I know she has a hard road ahead of her and will miss him so very much along with all his other family members and friends. Rest in peace Curt, you were truly loved.
