“ I remember when I first met David , I had posted for a job in his area and he became my supervisor . My first impression was that he was so young , and way to nice to be a supervisor . Yes , he was young , but he became a friend and someone who took the time to try to understand , when you had a problem . I haven't seen him since we were working at the Goodyear/ Dunlop plant . I was shocked to learn that he had passed away , still to young to have his life cut so short ! I pray that God will wrap his family in his arms and help them through the years to come , without their loved one . David made his mark on everyone who knew him and will be missed by everyone of them .

“ *I sure do hate to hear this sad, sad news. David was always so sweet and nice. He was a cousin I never saw quite enough of. I have thought of him and his sweet wife, Kristie, more than they would ever know. He was so handsome and the prettiest baby I ever saw. Thinking of you all at this terrible time.
