“ Dearest Rhonda and Ann, I was so sorry to learn a few minutes ago about the passing of your mother. She was such a sweetheart, and you are blessed to be her daughters. I had the opportunity to visit with Faye a few months ago in her home when Ann was in town. Faye was dealing with so many medical issues, but she did it with such grace and dignity. She never complained, although I'm sure she felt pretty bad. I hope that you will be comforted with the knowledge that she is now at rest in the arms of Jesus. She was a sweetheart, and she will be missed. Joe and I pray for God's peace and strength for you both and for your families during this difficult time. With love, Ellinor White
