“ My condolences to the Purser family. Psalms 46:1 says: God is a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found during distresses. Mrs. Betty please go to him and pour your heart out and taste and see that he is willing and able to give you the strength to continue on in your difficult days ahead. I hope this bring you some comfort in your time of need.

“ I will miss you so much. You reminded me so much of my grandpa. Ya looked so much alike. You meant so much to our family. You always had me laughing. I remember when we were kids coming back from Tennessee and the road iced over so we had to stay with Uncle Frank and Aunt Betty; we wanted to bring you home with us. I know you are celebrating now in heaven because your not in pain anymore. Heaven gained another angel yesterday. I will see you soon. I love you Uncle Frank! Till we meet again!!

“ When my grandmother, his sister, remarried he complimented me on my pretty blue eyes. I told him thank you and that I would let him borrow them sometime. Of course they were colored contacts; and we laughed about it. He told that story so well.
I also remember being a child and seeing him for the first time that I can remember and thinking he must be a giant. He will always be my giant. I love you Uncle Frank and I will see you again. You will be in my heart until I take my last breath. I know you will meet me in Heaven with open arms. Rest in Peace.
