“ Gail Black was a kind and caring person. A good human. My mom, Louise Hanson Davis, and she shared a dad. She was always a wonderful person to us, and kept in touch with us in later years. She was a great letter writer. She was always upbeat and positive and loved her family. I will miss knowing her here, She's reunited now with loved ones who have passed and I know I will see her again in Heaven one day. Melanie Davis King
