“ I am so sad to hear of George William's passing. He was a great man. I enjoyed being around him. He was always cutting up like Cora Lee. When I worked at Burger King in Guntersville, he would come in and I would call him Mr. Harris. He would always tell me that Mr. Harris passed away in the 1950's. That his name was George. We would go through the same routine almost daily. I think I enjoyed aggravating him as much as he enjoyed aggravating me. I am so sorry for your loss an I am praying for all of you. Please tell Mary Gene that I love her.
