“ Met Glen for the first time when I attended your wedding in 1977, and although you moved to Alabama, I'm pleased that we never lost touch. Happy to have met Priscilla and Trinity, and glad to have heard Glen perform his original songs. Sorry not to be able to make the funeral, but thanks for the memories.

“ I’m saddened for your extreme loss yet I know there is intense rejoicing happening in Heaven. My dad (Lowell) adored his Uncle Glen. Uncle Glen’s memory will live on eternally for the relationship and love he gave my father and family. I grew up listening to every song/CD Uncle Glen would send and those will be treasured. We love you all so much.
