“ Talk about the ultimate healing... I believe healing comes in many fashions and one is certain death... Harrison won't be aching, crying, longing for relief, but rejoicing with loved ones gone before.... He was definitely a friend to me... When I was young and wild and felt like the world was against me, Harrison told me different.. He said one day I'll grow out of my meanness and be a great man and great guitar player... I remember saying "WoW how can you play that fast?". He said "One day Oscar you will, just keep practicing"... Our song that Harrison, myself, and my cousin Jay Smith enjoyed playing was "Crying Holy"... Sure wish I had the chance to play it with him one more time but God set his time for now... I'll sure miss that great man dearly but God gave us the promise of seeing each other again and I plan on playing Crying Holy in Heaven with Harrison once my time is due... What a great man and mentor he was to me....
