“ So many memories. Randy Ira and Randy ridding to work together. Waiting out ice storms with babies. The kids playing together. Then you drift apart. I know he will be dearly missed. May God wrap you in the sweet warmth of his love and in his cloak around you. And provide with the strength. Go rest high on that mountain. Our deepest sympathies, Randall, Gail, Dustin, Kelley and Cassidy

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Ira's family. Ira had a wide open heart who made everyone he knew feel special. He helped whenever he could do anything for anyone. He will be missed for his funny humor and his ability to make your day brighter. He would help mow my field after he had mowed several other yards and he just never knew when to quit and rest. Although, he did love to stop and smell the roses. Once after delivering meals to the homebound he came into the center with a rose from his mother-in-law's yard with a big smile on his face. He was a good man and will never be forgotten. His love for his family, and friends, and for gardening will live on forever in our hearts and memories. I pray for comfort for all of you. I will miss really miss him. -
