

James Lee White

June 22, 1937 - November 9, 2015

Obituary

James L. White

Mr. James Lee White of Arab, AL passed from this life at Shepherd's Cove in Albertville, AL on Monday, November 9, 2015 after a battle with cancer. He was 78. He was married to the former Nancy Annette Solley for 57 years. James was born June 22, 1937, in Albertville, Alabama, to James Marvin and Verlera Gallman White.

James graduated from Arab High School in 1956, and served in the Alabama National Guard. In earlier years he worked with defense contractors at Redstone Arsenal, and later worked as an electrician on commercial and industrial construction projects. During this time he managed his farm and rental houses. In 1976, he became a full time farmer. He farmed and raised cattle as long as his health permitted. He served on the board of directors of the Marshall County Farmers Cooperative for several years. He enjoyed spending time with his children and grandchildren. He also enjoyed trade days and flea markets, and collecting antiques.

He is survived by his wife Nancy of Arab, AL; a son Roger White and his wife Robbie of North Augusta, SC; a son Mark White and his wife Robin of Arab, AL; and three grandchildren: Evan White of North Augusta, SC; Emily Piekut and her husband David of Pensacola, FL; and Eric White of Clemson, SC. He is also survived by a brother, N.W. White and his wife Gail of Union Grove, AL. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Edwin Earl White.

The funeral will be at 2:00 pm Wednesday, November 11, 2015 at Gober Funeral Chapel in Arab, AL with Brother Bobby Thomas officiating. Burial will be in Brookwood Cemetery in Arab, AL with Gober Funeral Chapel directing.

Pall Bearers: Raymond Briscoe, Danny Duncan, John Gibson, Todd Isom, David Piekut, and Evan White.

The family suggests memorial contributions to Hospice of Marshall County, 408 Martling Road, Albertville, AL 35951.
