“ Back when the tornados hit in 2011, Jimmy was at work way early in the morning. Our house was hit with major damage. Before Jimmy could get home, Fred was already on our roof helping someone put tarps over the section that was taken off, scaring me to death. He was already 70 years old then. He was always there for us, even when we didn't ask. He never hesitated for one minute when others were in need. Rest In Peace Fred...your work on earth is done. Love you dearly friend.
