“ I watched Jess come into this world as the most innocent soul and spirit that I was ever blessed enough to know. Jesse was so loved by so many. He became the man that my Aunt Mary strived so much of her life to make sure he was. He became that man and so very much more. He was a proud daddy and so very in love with his beautiful wife and their love was so visible. His face was a light in even the darkest of places. He was truly the most innocent soul and spirit I ever knew and that I will never forget. That same smile and innocent soul and spirit shines through the face of the baby boy he left here for us to remember him and love him through. Never forgotten and always loved, so missed, Monica Massey (Aunt Monica)

“ This is jesses mom. Id like to thank everyone for the sencere love and affection you felt for my son. It touched my heart and will stay with me forever. Jess was always so tender heartrd and he got bullied for it. It tore my heart apart to see him so hurt. He finaly stood up for himself and he never got bullied again by that boy.what hurt him most was when adults said mean things abd treated him like he was wierd. There was a vicious, vicious LIE spread about him . He was so hurt. I told him if they are not willing to take the time to get to know you thats there loss. They are nothing and you are everything. I always worried there were people like that in arab. Im not worried about that anymore. People came up to me and told me ; i was having a hard time or i was in a dark place and he talked to me and helped me through it. I met a lady jess spoke of often and i told her you didnt love him as much as i did abd she said "yes,yes i did". So so so many people that told me he left a wonderful mark on this world. Jess was in a dark place when he met sunnda and she changed everything. I am so grateful that my boy had her. The people that were close to jess loved him and loved him deeply. They saw what i did when i looked at his beautiful face and warm smile. The thing ill miss the most are his gentle bear hugs. He leaves behind a baby boy of his own and that breaks my heart.i will close saying since the day my baby boy was born, every time i heard Simple Man by lynard skynard that sumed up what i wanted for my boy (his favorite version was done by def tones)
