“ Jimmie and Ken got married 2 weeks before Helen and I did. We did not set up house keeping because I had to go to Germany. Jimmie and Ken would invite us to spend the night with them when I could get home on weekends. We loved them both for this. In later years we loved getting together and going out for dinner weekly. Thanks for the great memories.

“ One of my teenage years, we were having our family reunions in October and that's a sacred time for our family. There was a lot of us crammed into my grandmother's living room watching a vital football game. Well, Aunt Jimmie Lee came to the kitchen doorway and yelled, "Lunch! Come on!" Of course, we didn't even look her way 'cause we were watching football. We found out PDQ not to mess with Aunt Jimmie Lee!😂😂 She came flying into the living room; she planted herself between the tv and this gaggle of kids AND adults; and hollered, OUT! NOW!" Man, we must have sounded like a herd of buffalo trying to run out of that house! Never EVER underestimated her again.😂😂 We definitely loved her because she was fun, witty, loving, generous, and overall a beautiful, wonderful woman and she will be missed terribly. You've found your peace Aunt Jimmie Lee now you just have to wait for Uncle Ken 🌹
❤️😭
