“ I love you Judy. I will miss you all the days of my life from now until I meet you again. You were my best friend my helper to get through many of the tough things in my life. We were always together for as long as I can remember. Seen one you seen the other. My heart is so broken over losing you. I'll miss calling talking laughing dancing your good country cooking and just knowing you would be there if I needed you. I love you so much and I'm gonna miss you. Love: your sister Kathy ❤️ 🙏
