“ When Judy left this earth to enter Heaven, I not only lost a sister but also my best friend. I have so many happy memories of my life with her, from hanging out at Jaycee Beach, roaming through the woods behind our house on Hill Street in Guntersville, waterskiing all over Guntersville Lake, breaking out into uncontrollable laughter at times that were supposed to be solome occasions (like sitting in church), climbing our Chinaberry tree, roller skating on the street, vacations together, and the list goes on and on. I am so happy that I have the assurance that Judy accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior long ago, so I know that she is with Him today. It isn't really goodbye, but just farewell until we meet again. She was dearly loved. :)
