“ My Uncle Justin was an icon to our Family. Whenever he would visit., We would all get together and share in his love and wisdom. We would laugh for hours and hear great stories. My mother (Justin's sister) always told me to watch and learn from Uncle Justin, He will show you how to be a gentleman. I did watch him and learn. Uncle Justin will live in our hearts and memories. He will never be forgotten. I will miss him very much

“ Justin Ehman was my friend, but then he was a friend to just about everyone. Justin was 94 years old, but that was just in people years. He wasn't old to me. He had a love of life, a ready wit, a sharp mind and he loved a good joke.

He still drove, lived in his own home (which he kept meticulous), had a very special lady in his life and would hop in his car and drive to visit relatives in Illinois or fly with them all to Ireland with only the idea of a great adventure in mind. He was large in stature, and large in life. He was a southern gentleman (from Illinois) although he always laughed that he would forever be "that d___m yankee" to the people of Arab.

He was a member of "the greatest generation". This gentle giant was an Arab treasure who cannot be replaced.

I will miss him.
