“ *I'm so sorry for your loss. I also have a baby in Heaven and I pray that you will find peace in knowing you will see your beautiful angel, Katherine Ivy, again. Lean on your family and church family as much as you need to. When you feel up to it, please try to read The Healing Quilt by Lauraine Snelling. It helped me tremendously. God bless you and hold you all closely. <3 Deb Stanton Stone*

“ She is cradled in the arms of Jesus,

Katherine Ivy

She was so small, so beautiful, so full of hope and promise.

What a blessing she has been to all of us who knew her those few short weeks.

*She taught us to love,
to hope beyond expectation,
to trust in that which is unseen.
She drew us together in our anxiety,*

*Our moments of despairing and hopelessness,
as well as in our joys and delight,
in her every breath.*

*Her life ended prematurely; Too soon she died.
We wept. The tears continue. We hugged and held one another. The pain will always linger.*

*Our hearts emptier for her absence and the unfulfilled dreams she promised.
But the love she brought into our lives will live forever.*

*Thank you for giving her to us.
Thank you for the blessing that she will always be.
Thank you for the love we would never have known,
but for her and her brief days with us.*

Thank you for Katherine Ivy, our blessed child of grace.

Amen.

Just want you to know that I am thinking about you and I wish I could hold you close to let you know everything will be alright. Katherine is in paradise today playing with all the other children that have gone before us. If you get a chance, read the book "Heaven is Real." It helped when we lost Christian last August. Just knowing that we will meet Christian one day just helped. Sending my love from our family to yours.
