“ Lynne always stood with such a sense of honesty and an open heart. She brought a calmness and peace to the moment whenever I was with her. She loved her doll collection and other collections of things that made her happy. Lynne loved her family and I am honored that her pure love included me. I love you, Lynne. I grieve never seeing you again, but I am joyful that you are now reunited with Aunt Audrey, Uncle John, Meme, Oz, and John Gober Isom.

“ Many years ago, Lynne was the first person in my 7th grade class who wanted to trade school photos. My twin sister Cindy and I had just moved from Niagara Falls, New York and had barely spoken to others. I'll always cherish that memory. May her spirit soar!

Lynne was the best friend anyone could have. From fun at band camp, to the Shower of Stars concerts, trips to Florida, Fan Fare week in Nashville, to our later years of shopping & calling each other 3 or 4 times a week. There is a hole in my heart no one else can fill. I will miss my friend always.
