“ I remember as a little girl, I used to stay with Aunt Mary often, she had all these beautiful dolls that I loved playing with. I also remember going out and feeding the cows all the corn cobs after dinners and especially Thanksgiving. She was a wonderfully soft and sweet lady, just like my Papa. Rest in peace sweet Aunt Mary.

“ She was a wonderful aunt! She made her famous strawberry punch for our wedding in 1996 and was always so giving of her time, food and self throughout the years. We loved playing cards with her and Junior. She will be so missed!
