Melissa had such hope for her future even though her life was filled with so many struggles. She blessed me so often as she clung to the promise of our Jesus healing and wholeness for her. Lovely Melissa you are home now bathed in his joy everlasting now and ever more. Good bye lovely lady.

Melissa had a heart of gold and a true desire to serve God. She has peace, sweet peace that we can't have until we join her in the presence of God! What a loving heart and relentless desire to work in ministry and to serve our Lord.
