“ Monica held the room...her light spilled over with such strength... capturing each heart beat for beat. She was the definition of family and unconditional love. I am a better person for just knowing her and I am forever blessed to have been so lucky to have her call me her friend. My heart hurts and will always feel a small space of empty with her. I thank God that he allowed me to be a part of such an amazing woman. I miss her so bad already... She will forever be missed, remembered and loved... Thank you Monica..for being my family. I love you so much..
