“ Dear Ora Faye: I didn't know about your passing until Friday night and I'm so sorry I didn't get to come to your service. I have some very good memories of being with you and Era Mae, Aunt Vera and Uncle Jasper. Spending the night, riding on Uncle Jasper's shoulders through the fields at night, Aunt Verta's original orange cakes she gave Daddy at Christmas and time spent being with your girls. I love you and will miss you. Your cousin, Shelba Jean Smith Wetheral
