“ So many memories of you from my childhood up through my adult life. You were my second momma when I was little. A lot of people thought I belonged to you instead of my mom because I had dark hair and eyes like you. I watched you work so hard in your life so your own family could have nice things. I knew when I saw you the in September last year I probably would never see you again on this side. I enjoyed our talks on the phone most evenings. Even though the past few months you weren't sure who I was. I always knew my Aunt Ramona was in there somewhere. You are now with Grandma and Grandpa Uncle Baron and Big Mike. Rest easy your work on earth taking care of others is done. I love you
