“ I have had the honor of being one of Tabitha's son's teachers for the past two years. She was always one of my favorite parents to work with, because of how dedicated to her son she was, and how involved she was with the school. I enjoyed our conversations. Her son, Scott Jr, is one of the most caring and good-natured students that I have taught. He spoke often about his mother, and all the fun things that she did with him. She will be dearly missed. Your entire family is in my thoughts and prayers during this time.

“ Tabitha has been my friend since We moved to Huntsville four years ago. Our boys went to prek together & every other weekend we took them put for different events. We just had lunch together Thursday & We was making plans to take our boys to the easter event at Cabellas. I just can't believe my friend is gone 😭 My heart is broken & it's just so unreal to me. I want our son to continue doing things together cause I know that's what she would want. God be with husband & son 😊😭
