“ William was indeed a remarkable man, a steadfast believer who cherished his family deeply. I admired his strong faith and his influence on my own journey as a young believer. Although I regret not staying in touch with him and his family, his friendship and example made a big impact in my life. It's difficult to come to terms with his absence, but I find peace in knowing that he's now with Jesus. Brother Koon, you'll always hold a special place in my heart, and though you're no longer with us, your memory will live on. Until we meet again, big bro.

With love and remembrance,
